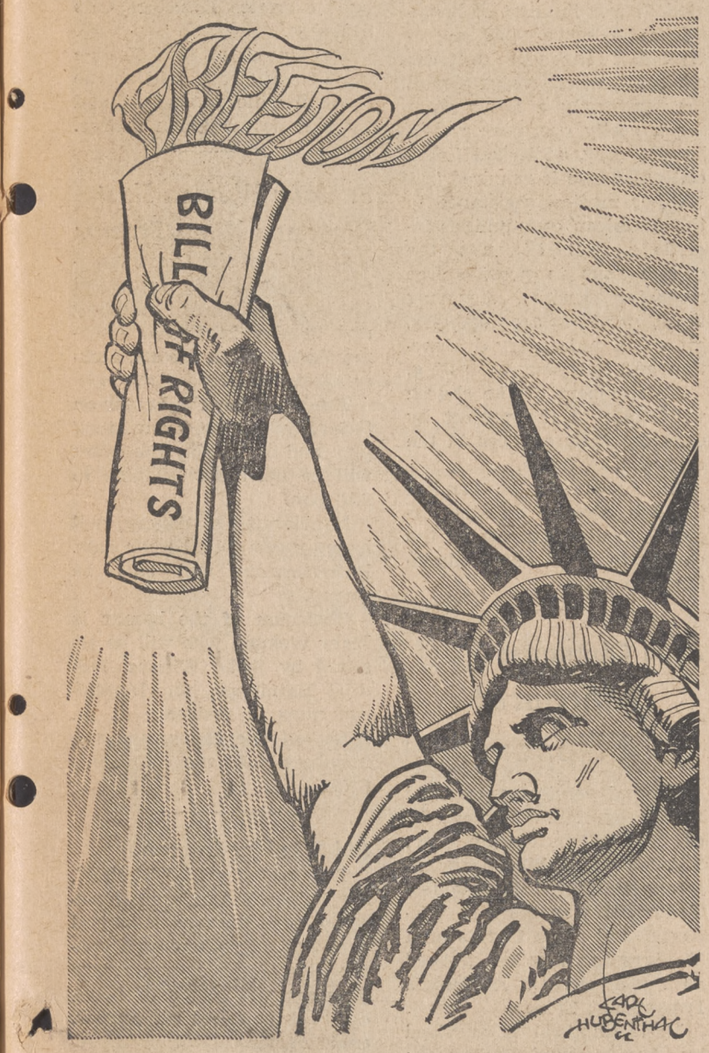
The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin



SOURCE OF HER FLAME

A document which has been an inspiration to people around the world became the law of the land in the United States on Dec. 15, 1791. Long referred to as the Bill of Rights, the first 10 amendments to the Constitution have provided a guarantee of our freedoms for 186 years.

And for the past 37 years, the Bill of Rights Commmemoration Committee has sponsored a variety of activities to promote observance of Bill of Rights Week, December 9-15.

When our fledgling country adopted the Constitution in 1787, abuses of power by the British government were still fresh in the minds of our founders. To prevent such abuses in the future and to insure protection of the rights of individuals and the separate states, these amendments to the constitution were added.

They spell out such rights as free speech, free press and trial by jury. In just a single page are listed many of the basic concepts by which we live.

The Bill of Rights Commemoration Committee seeks to remind Americans of their heritage of freedom.

During Bill of Rights Week, you can help celebrate by reading this document again.

We should not need to be reminded of what our lives would be like without the protection of this magnificent statement of our rights.

Wrong Way Confusion on 94

Local police reminded themselves last week that you just can't take things for granted.

But newsmen, who live by that creed, could have been equally confused.

It happened when a radio call went out on the police band that a hearse was passing through Lemon Grove on Freeway 94 traveling west at a normal rate of speed but in the eastbound lanes.

They suspected it to be a drinking driver since it had already hit 3 autos, one a police car. No one was injured, however.

The driver of the hearse, with the corpse in the back, proved to be in insulin shock from the medication which had been administered for his diabetes shortly before.

But here's what the taking it for granted can do to you!

Who would believe that at the same time within a mile of the incident, going in the same direction, but on the proper side of the freeway, was another hearse?

Police units rushing to the scene of the wrong-way hearse spotted the second one suspecting that the "drunk" driver was making his getaway, converged on it forcing it to the side of the roadway. Officers, one with a gun drawn, approached the vehicle.

In it were a properly sober driver and a church official. They were returning from a burial. Both were deeply indignant.

Meanwhile, the diabetic driver was given treatment and his hearse and its cargo were delivered to its destination.

But for a while there were some puzzled cops trying to make the Lemon Grove section of 94 safer for freeway users.

Guidelines Protect Home Owners

Revised Housing Element Guidelines, recently adopted by the State Department of Housing and Community Development, are now available from the department at 921 10th st., Sacramento, 95814.

The guidelines, designed to expand housing supply and improve the quality and availability to homes, require local governments to include in their general plan a housing element which consists of standards and plans for the improvement of housing and provision for adequate sites.

They also call for housing elements which make adequate provision for the housing needs of all economic parts of the community.

Local governments will have at least 18 months to reassess and revise local housing element planning and implementation.

Council Lends Hand In Library Project

The Lemon Grove City Council Monday night approved an ordinance and a resolution establishing an underground utility district (No. 1) on Imperial ave. from Broadway to Eldora st. and set April 14 as the deadline for the installation.

By that date affected property owners shall have removed all poles and wires and associated overhead structures and made ready to receive underground installation of wires and facilities for electric and associated services.

In other business, Council rejected a request of Daniel P. Joynt regarding the installation of a new fire hydrant at his property. He had requested permission for a lot split and part of the condition was that he replace an old 400-gallon-a-minute hydrant with one of 1,000 gallons capacity.

Appeal Granted

An appeal from a decision by the LEUR requiring Mary Ellen Pitard of Golden ave. near Crane st. to install sidewalks and curbs as a condition of a property improvement was granted. The LEUR requirement would have changed the personality of Golden ave. and would have required the removal of several fully grown trees.

The Council also gave some aid to Arthur Becker, who proposes to build a new County Library, together with a shopping center on Broadway at Washington st. Council relieved Becker of the expense of undergrounding utilities along Washington but upheld the staff (County) demand that Broadway utilities be undergrounded.

Franchise Approved

The biggest piece of business was the adoption of the ordinance by which San Diego Gas and Electric was given the franchise to provide those services to the residents of the City — a not unexpected decision.

Councilman Robert Burns, 3rd District Commissioner to the County Flood Control District, reported that three items were budgeted for 1978-'79. 1—Pearce Manor—storm drains, $17,000; 2—Ensenada st. $35,000 (1st phase of a $540,000 project) storm drains, and 3—Various small improvements of $10,000.

Burns said the secured tax rate of the district has dropped from .088 to .079.

Future "Brown Bag" informal meetings will be held in City Hall at noon on December 13 and 27 and January 10 and 31. These meetings are public but no business will be transacted.

The Council also changed the meeting place of the December 19 meeting to Lemon Grove Junior high to accommodate an expected large attendance interested in the Central Baptist Church and the Edco (trash equipment repair facility on Federal blvd. near McArthur) matter.

The school is one block west of the Education Center meeting place—at Lincoln and School lane. The meeting opens at 7:30 p.m.

A meeting of the Lemon Grove Planning Assn. is scheduled for tonight at 7:30 at Palm Junior High school with Mayor James Dorman scheduled to discuss planning needs for the community.

Bob Holaday will preside.

Council's First 'Brown Bag' Meet is Productive

Lemon Grove's City Council held its first "Brown Bag" get-together Thursday in the council chambers at Main and North sts.

The idea was good and proved productive.

Utilizing their 1½-hour lunch period while munching on sandwiches will be continued on alternate Tuesdays.

The meetings do not replace official ones conducted on first and third Monday evenings of each month so no official action is taken.

It was the idea of Jack Shelver, the city manager, which created the Brown Bag meetings.

One of the matters discussed Friday was how to handle questions and complaints. They are to be directed to Shelver.

Others. Should there be a skateboard ordinance?

Should the council do something about the weeks in Skyline Parks.

Start thinking about what to do with HCD and Revenue Sharing funds when they become available.

Discussions on planning and hearing matters so as to expedite decisions at council meeting.

Mayor Jim Dorman asked for more communications between council members so that the entire group can be aware of what individual members are doing.

He also noted that a railroad right-of-way concern and a joint venture with the Chamber of Commerce for the Old Time Days Parade might be considered.

Jack Doherty discussed getting together a business license ordinance and use part of the proceeds to make the Chamber stronger.

Dell Lake wanted a license ordinance that would give the council some control over the transient firms which sell services and products locally and often leave a trail of dissatisfied consumers behind.

Dale Baily asked whether it would be feasible to deduct chamber membership fees from business license costs.

Dr. Bob Burns produced a list of items which included a "Reader" file, open to the public. It would contain all City material; a suggestion box in City Hall; set rules for use of office equipment by others than office staff; a newspaper question and answer column regarding City business among other items.

There was a discussion on whether or not to raze the present Center of School lane and replace with a more functional one. This resulted from the question being mulled by the Council for many weeks: Should $15,000-$20,000 be spent at the Center for a canopy?

Office policy procedures will be developed as a result of the lunch-meeting. These will include auto and other expenses incurred on City business and operational procedures by office personnel.

Leslie Sidars Services Held

Services were held Wednesday for Leslie O. Sidars, 71, of 8242 Palm st., Lemon Grove who died Friday in a military hospital.

He had lived in the county 25 years.

He was in the submarine service of WWII and was a chief motor machinist's mate at retirement.

He was a member of the Fleet Reserve Assn. Branch 9 and Retired Submarine Veterans Assn.

He is survived by his wife, Anna, M.; a daughter, two sons including David A. of Lemon Grove; a brother; two sisters; five grandchildren, and 3 great-grandchildren.

Shelver To Speak At Today's LG Chamber Meeting

Lemon Grove City Manager Jack Shelver will be the guest speaker at today's Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce meeting.

The meeting will be held in the Skandia Smorgasbord, 7973 Broadway.

Also, the members of the Chamber may bring guests to the meeting.

The Chamber office also has new 1977 maps of Lemon Grove. They can be picked up at the office Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The date has been set for next year's Old Time Days Parade. In 1978, the parade will be held on April 8.

The Shortest Block LG's B'way-Grove St.

Lemon Grove, noted for many things, is now noted for one new one. The city now sports one of the shortest blocks in the county.

A new traffic light put in by county engineers last month at the intersection of Broadway and Grove streets makes the block between Grove and Kempf streets a mere 225 feet long.

That is, according to County Engineer Manard Smith, motorists stopping at the Broadway-Kempf street stoplight have just another 225 feet before they come to another stoplight—this one at the intersection of Broadway and Grove.

According to Smith, the county traffic studies showed a total of nine vehicles per lane could fit between the light at Broadway-Kempf and the light at Broadway-Grove.

Smith did not divulge the size of the vehicles.

Even though the block is short, the number of accidents occuring at the Broadway-Grove street intersection has been high.

In the past three years, county studies show some 22 right angle collisions at the intersection.

The cost of the project was $31,200 for the lights and an additional $6,000 for the switching system.

Smith also said he would make a study of the right turn light from Broadway into Grove street.

The light is staged such that motorists stopped behind through traffic in the right lane do not have sufficient room to negotiate around other vehicles to make a right turn onto Grove street.

Tony Fernandez has been reelected as President of the Lemon Grove School Employee's Association.

Also attending the installation party was Lemon Grove School Trustees Carol Chubb, Vicky Morgan, and Board of Trustees President Henry Reinecke.

Also present was CSEA field Representative Dorothy Maranda.

Maranda installed the new local officers.

Metric System Articles Start Here Next Week

A metric system conversion program became state law in September and created the California Metric Conversion Council to supervise an orderly conversion to the system.

A series of articles to aid readers in understanding how the system works has been prepared by John Corbett of Spring Valley — an eminently qualified metric authority.

In 1971 Corbett was chairman of the L.A. Chapter of the Standard Engineers Society when it endorsed conversion to International System of Units (SI)

1973 — He was chairman of UCLA's Metric Conference.

1974 — Created first metric exhibits in the S.D. Library and branches. New exhibits in 1976.

1974 — Founded the S.D. Chapter of U. S. Metric Assn.

Present — Vice president of U. S. Metric Assn. Holds Lifetime California Standard Designated Teaching Credential and is the metric instructor at Grossmont Adult School.

Wrote metric sections of manuals for Departments of Defense and Commerce and authored two volumes on metrics.

The first of a series start next week.

There's An Answer

by Mr. & Mrs. Norman Vincent Peale

Fat and too little faith

Q. I am writing because I have a big problem — not enough faith. I started on a diet at 176 pounds. I get down to 140 and then I get so discouraged I start to eat and go back up and then I go down again.

The slightest little thing bothers me and I get upset and I eat.

I always wonder why God doesn't do something to help me so I won't be this way. Mom tells me to trust God and have more faith.

My question is how do you have faith? I hope you print my letter and give me an answer I can understand.

A. Don't blame God. You and I are responsible for any lack of character and strength of will. Like yourself, I started on a diet at 176 pounds and currently weigh 143.

I stuck to my diet without bothering God about it. I knew He expected me to have what it takes to reduce my excess weight. You really do not need more faith; just simply a commodity called mental discipline.

You can lick that compulsive eating by just not eating. As you begin to see results in weight reduction you will get a lot of satisfaction in watching the scales register less and less.

Your emotional state will improve, you'll like yourself better, and you will have lots of fun.

We have a booklet, "Help Yourself With God's Help," which has helped others with questions such as yours, and a copy of it is on its way to you. Anyone wishing a free copy of the book may receive one by writing to me at Box 500, Pawling, NY 12564.

Sorry and wants to go home

Q. I'm 14 years old, in a foster home. I really got myself in a mess because I said things about what my father did to me, only I told it all wrong to better myself. Now I don't know what to do.

I really hurt my parents. I keep saying things about them and I don't know why. I'm pretending I hate them and that I like it where I'm at. But I don't because I'm missing them and epecially my sister.

A. All in the world that you need to do is to stop all this lying. Tell the truth about how you feel and by so doing become a natural, honest person.

You are a mixed-up youngster, saying one thing and meaning something else. The secret of a better life for you is as simple as saying what you mean and stopping the lying.

That is the way to start. Then you might follow up by talking with a trusted counselor who could help you understand yourself.

Needs male companionship

Q. Nine months ago my husband (20 years my senior) died. Our marriage was such a good one, and the void is so large. I know there will never be another man to compare with my late husband.

I don't mean to say that our marriage didn't have problems. It did. But we solved them, and our love grew stronger.

I am in my late 40's and our adopted daughter is 11 years old. She, like myself, needs the companionship of a male.

We are both very religious people—in our church and in our home. The town I live in is really very small. In what ways could you suggest help with my needs for male companionship?

A. Your feeling of need is normal, especially at your age. And the need for a father for your 11-year-old daughter is likewise normal.

Somewhere out there is the right man for you and your little girl. Pray and believe that you and this man will find each other regardless of the small population of your town. But in the meantime, relax and accept singleness as a good way of life.

Meet as many people as you can under wholesome circumstances and who knows what satisfying new chapters may open up next in your life?

Emergency Relief Fund Started To Bail Out Methodist Home

United Methodists in four states have started an Emergency Relief Fund to help an estimated 350 senior citizens who face possible eviction from church-related retirement homes.

The campaign is in response to statements by Richard Matthews, court-appointed Receiver for the financially troubled Pacific Homes.

Matthews notified residents last week that their rents would increase from a range of 0-$400 per month to new levels between $340 and $900.

In a letter to residents Matthews explained that the homes had been experiencing deficits for some time and that all other sources of funding the deficit have ceased.

He further stated that "occupants will be permitted to occupy their existing accommodations only so long as all fees are paid when due . . ."

United Methodists of the Pacific and Southwest Conference have already contributed $1.2 million in the past five months to help keep the homes operational in spite of monthly deficits averaging $300,000.

The church had offered to raise another $7.8 million if a Pacific Homes-backed plan of reorganization could secure approval. 91% of voting residents approved the plan, but complaints by 150 of the 1846 residents were sufficient to block its adoption.

Pacific Homes is currently gency Relief Fund to help an tions in bankruptcy proceedings and is now under the supervision of the Federal District Court in Los Angeles.

In announcing the emergency appeal, Bishop Charles Golden stated that the church was not acting out of legal obligations but out of Christian conviction.

"This crisis has left in its wake many tragic effects which must be addressed," the Bishop said. "Not the least among these is the inability of some residents to meet new fees required for continuing health care and accommodations."

Bishop Golden further noted "the Christian mission of our Conference challenges us to respond to this appeal."

Matthews has estimated that $200,000 per month will be required to meet continued operating deficits, pending completion of arrangements for governmental subsidies of the needy residents.

Churches of the Conference currently contibute in excess of $2 million to the world mission of the denomination and more than $1 million for ministries of outreach and community service in the 4 state area.

The 477 churches of the Conference are being asked to respond to the Emergency Relief Fund as a way of addressing the needs of individuals involved in the Homes' crisis.

Adventists To Begin Drive for Medical $$

The kickoff of the 69th annual Seventh-day Adventist World Service Appeal will begin Saturday with church members seeking donations door-to-door and in local shopping centers.

The annual campaign seeks funds for the 136 hospitals and 261 medical units operated by the Seventh-day Adventists worldwide. An estimated 11 million people are aided each year by the medical organizations set up by the Adventist Church.

A local Seventh-day Adventist pastor, the Reverend John DuNesme of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, 4207 Spring street, La Mesa, further explained the medical service offered by the church.

"Some of these hospitals are the only medical services available in their local area. The contributions of our friends will mainly help to support our clinics, dispensaries, medical launches and airplanes in 192 nations."

"Fees paid in American hospitals," the Reverend reiterated, "cover the cost of hospital maintenance and operation. But in most overseas countries, where a sick person may pay only a few dollars for a costly operation and a lengthy stay, additional financial assistance is required."

Other medical assistance to the American communities include a fleet of vans the church runs to provide free screening services. Among these services are diabetes, glaucoma, pulmonary dysfunction and hytertension testing.

All members of the church will share in the project by donating their services in the collection of funds.

All funds will be handled through already existing organizational channnels of the church to avoid extra administrative costs.

For Pilate, the memoir is a useful study in the art of politics.

The Senator's sources for the book are the writings in the bible, the works of Josephus, and biblical scholars.

Mills is the President Pro Tem of the California Senate and a former Curator of the San Diego Historical Society's Serra Museum. Pilate is his third book.

Auditions Scheduled For 'Boom Boom Room' In Puppet Theatre

Auditions will be by appointment only and interested actors and technicians should call 234-7938 for an appointment.

"Boom Boom Room" will run Thursdays-Sundays, January 19-February 12.

The theatre is seeking 7 females and 6 males to take the following roles:

Chrissy: young impressionable and naive go-go dancer.

Susan: hostess in the Boom Boom Room, "Mother" to the other girls, hardened and experienced.

Sally, Melissa and Vikki: go-go dancers.

Helen and Harold: Chrissy's mother and father, mid-50's, large man, a laborer.

Guy: young man, mid-30's, gay.

Eric: young man, neat, brisk, educated.

Ralphie: strange and sinister friend of Al's, 20's-30's.

Al: bigotted, cruel, late 30's.

The Man: "street" character, any age.

"Boom Boom" concerns the fragile ambitions of Chrissy who is dancing in the Boom Boom Room but dreams of being a great dancer. Her encounters during the course of play destroy this dream and she is reduced at the end to dancing topless in a sleazy bar, without hope and without tenderness.

"Boom Boom Room" is an explicit play, in subject matter and in language.

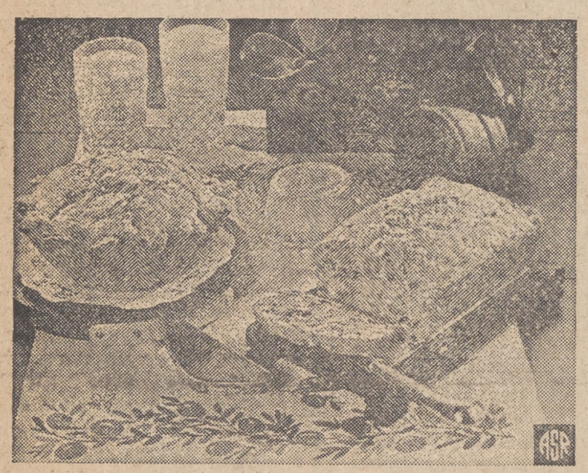
This Week's RECIPE



Cranberry Nut Bread

A nice touch for the holidays is Cranberry Nut Bread complete with a half cup of fresh creamery butter and a cup of whole milk which gives it a flavor all to itself.

This quick bread slices and stays fresh for several days. Chopped cranberries and nuts plus a bit of orange peel add texture accents and a bit of color to the holiday season.

Cranberry Nut Bread

½ cup butter, softened
½ cup sugar
1 egg
2 teaspoons grated orange peel
2½ cups flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
2 cups cranberries, chopped
½ cup chopped nuts

Beat together butter and sugar until fluffy. Beat in egg and orange peel. Stir in flour mixed with baking powder and salt, alternately with milk. Batter will be stiff.

Mix in cranberries and nuts. Turn into a greased and floured 9x5x3-inch loaf pan or a two quart mold. Bake in a 350 degree oven one hour or until pick inserted in center comes out dry. Deep molds will require longer baking time. Cool ten minutes in pan. Invert onto rack to cool. Makes 1 (nine inch) loaf.

Boys' Clubs to Benefit From COP'er Bowl Grid Game

The 2nd annual COP'er Bowl has been scheduled for Saturday, January 7 at 6 p.m. in the San Diego Stadium. The game pits members of the S.D. Police Department against personnel of the Sheriff's Department.

The 1977 edition of the cop vs. cop game produced $20,000 for the Boys' Club of San Diego. The funds are earmarked to help curb juvenile delinquency.

The actual sponsors are members of the S.D.P.D. Athletic Federation and S.D. County Deputy Sheriff's Assn.

In the initial game the San Diego Police "Heats" combined Don Sada's throwing arm and wide receiver Wilton "Skip" Stephenson's quick hands for four scores, with Sada completing 11 of 23 attempts for 216 yards and two touchdowns. Stephenson, a former all-CIF selection from Santana High and pass catching whiz at New Mexico, caught five bombs launched by Sada for 147 yards and another pair of scores.

On the Sheriffs side for the County "Mounties", it was former San Dieguito running back Bill Sullivan who was the workhorse, with 13 carries for 71 yards and three receptions for 39 more. The "Mounties" quarterback, Don Needham, completed 11 of 26 tosses for 125 yards and one touchdown with wide receiver John Marlow snaring six catches for 66 yards. The final score — "Heats" 33, and the "Mounties" 14.

This year, as before, each team will use volunteers using their own time for training. The Heat began on October 1st with 101 officers. The Mounties started October 22 with 61.

Heats practice Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4:30 p.m. and Saturday at 9 a.m.

Mounties work out Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 9 a.m. Both teams use the southwest corner of the Stadium.

Tickets are now on sale at a list of locations. They $2 for general admission and $5 for press level.

Last year 23,000 tickets were sold.

Here are present location of sales points.

The S.D. Police Assn., 666 W Market; Sheriff's Assn.; County and Muni Employees Credit Union, at 5555 Mildred st.; S.D. Stadium, Gate E; Clairemont Community Hospital, Emergency room; Miramar College; Mesa College Student Affairs Office; All S.D. Trust banks; All Boys Clubs; S.D. Slugging Dominates Card

Card at Coliseum Like 'Rocky' Movie

"Rocky" returned at the S.D. Coliseum Friday night.

There was more show of courage and determination on Friday's 5-bout card than local boxing fans have seen in year — and more slugging, too.

In the main go, a 6-round junior middleweight scrap, Miguel Ruiz of Tijuana was ahead on points until he dropped his guard and Moses Armos of L.A. powdered him with a left to the ear which dropped him to his knees.

The referee counted out the kneeling Ruiz at 2:53 of the 2nd round.

In the 10-round main event, Julio Gomez (16-4), the welterweight champ of Chile, dropped Antonio Leyva (13-4) of Mexicali four times. He was unable to defend himself at 55 seconds of the 3rd round and the referee stopped the fight.

It was, as was the Ruiz-Armos bout, a smash-bang scrap all the way.

Interestingly, the referee didn't stop the fight on the 3rd knockdown. He gave no reason to not abiding by the rule.

In another welterweight battle, a 6-rounder, Bert Lee, the pride of the Mt. Empire went down twice in the first round and Jim Bella of Santa Ana nearly dropped several more times, but Lee came back strong and earned a draw.

A low blow by Bella cost him the win.

After the first round, the audience stood between rounds for Lee's comeback determination.

In a 4-round heavyweight bout, Lenie Provo won a unanimous decision from Duwayne Wiley of L.A. Provo, sponsored by former fight promoter Lou Lake, forced the fight. But when Wiley discerned that he had to fight or get KO'd, he made it a pretty good battle of it.

In a 3-round middleweight amateur bout, Gerardo Bellon of Spring Valley gained a split decision over Robert Wilcott of San Bernardino. Both lads were brawlers. The crowd was highly appreciative of the entire card.

The next card is scheduled for Friday, December 16 and one of the more promising new fighters is tentatively booked. He is Steve Delgado, an exciting welterweight, who is in the last few days of his service with the Marine Corps in San Diego.

One item of interest was the announcement by the State Athletic Commission's senior official, Joey Omos, that Spud Murphy had been suspended for 6 months following a knockout beating he took two weeks earlier.

Following the knockout he became ill and was transported to the hospital.

Murphy, however, says he's back in training will probably fight in 2 months.

A mandatory month's grounding is required after being knocked out.

$2.5 Million to Go In Los Alamitos Meet

$25,000-added Director's Handicap at 400 yards Saturday heads the second week of action at the Horsemen's Quarter Horse Assn. meet at Los Alamitos.

The Director's Handicap is the final prep for the nation's best stakes runners scheduled for the $100,000 Champion of Champions on December 17.

The 58-date HQHRA meet races Tuesday through Sunday with a 12:45 p.m. first post time daily.

The record setting winter meet will feature an all-time high $2.5 million in purses with $800,000 earmarked for stakes events. There are 12 races of at least $25,000 in value highlighted by the $100,000 Champion of Champions and the $225,000 Golden State Futurity on December 24.

The Director's Handicap traditionally attracts the premier 3-year-old and older stakes runners scheduled for the Champion of Champions.

Possible Director's Handicap participants include Champion of Champions invites Megahertz, Southern Streaker, Easy Dandy Dan and Azure Three. Top Los Alamitos' stakes stars Flashy Go Moore, Twin Jet and Louton's Angel are also probable entrants.

Megahertz, 1976 Champion 2-year-old colt, qualified for the Champion of Champions by winning the State Fair Stakes at Albuquerque in September. The tough Easy Jet colt has earned nearly $160,000 and has a record of three firsts and a second in five outs this year.

Lumberjack Scrap on Coliseum Card

The last wrestling match of 1977 will be at the Coliseum Tuesday night at 7:30.

It features an "All Losers Leave Town" Night.

In a Lumberjack Match where the ring is picketed and the wrestler attempted to crawl through the ropes for protection, he is shoved back in.

In the match Chavo Guererro tests Victor Rivera.

In an American Tag Team Title bout, the team of Black Gordman and the Great Goliath attempts to win the crown from the Jones Boys—Tom and S.D.

In other bouts, Coloso Colosetti scrambles with Mando Guererro; The Canadian takes on K.O. Perez, and Percy Mansfield, the Continental Lover grapples with "The Incredible" Buster Durant.

Wrestling will resume after the holidays. The Coliseum is at 15th and E sts. in downtown San Diego.

Aztec Gridders Post 10-1 Season

San Diego Aztecs made it back-to-back 10-1 football seasons by knocking off San Jose 37-34 last week in a game that was regionally televised by ABC.

The Aztecs finished the season averaging 415.9 yards total offense, 244.1 yards passing and 31.7 points. On defense the team held its opponents to just 113.0 yards rushing and 15.0 points.

Individually, Joe Davis averaged 15.8 pass completions per game and threw for 2360 yards and 24 TD's. David Turner rushed a school record 240 times for 1252 yards and 13 TD's. Turner also averaged 151.7 yards all-purpose running.

The back-to-back 10-1 seasons marked only the second time a San Diego State team has turned the trick. Don Coryell's 1966 and 1967 teams went 11-0 and 10-1.

Aztec head coach Claude Gilbert ran his five year coaching record to 45-8-2 for a winning percentage of .849.

TAKE FIVE

by John E. Wirges

Lace on a good pair of walking shoes and hang tight guys, we're right smack in the middle of one of the greatest sport's seasons of the year.

It ain't football although the pigskin parade claims most male attention in these final weeks of broken dreams piling up on gridirons across the nation.

And except for the talking part just finishing its opening stages in the aftermath of the winter meetings in Honolulu, we ain't enjoying baseball yet.

If you are still there, it ain't the hockey or basketball campaigns, either. The overdressed skaters and the underdressed hoopsters are only doing warmups. Their season doesn't really start until they eliminate a couple of teams in each division and challenge spring training's baseball reports for space in sports pages with their playoffs.

It ain't one of ours, guys. We're in a season almost strictly regulated, regarded, run and reserved for the distaff side.

Would you believe the Christmas Shopping Season? It's on. The campaign is underway. The ladies are out on the field in force.

And they're dragging their husbands with them. Like beast of burden, husbands are loaded with boxes, bags, objects and packages of every size and description.

"It's your duty," says the wife. "That's what husbands are for. When God made man, she intended him to assist his wife by holding her purchases while she searched her purse for her credit card."

"God a SHE? Since when," I asked knowing full well I shouldn't have. I was better off uninformed.

"Don't blaspheme God," corrected the wife. "She'll get you for talking dirty like that."

There is absolutely no way to win an argument that starts out with that premise. Better to shut up and carry.

Don't poo-poo the seriousness of the season, either. No battle or campaign ever directed by great combat leaders, be he Vince Lombardi or George Patton, ever received more research, review, reconnaissance or reasoning that M'Lady gives to gearing up and heading out to shop.

Sears, Wards, May Co. and the Broadway could earn our undying affection and considerable cash if they would commission "Lost Husband's Salons" with beer, munchies and suitable sports TV coverage near some central charging station on their premises.

As it is, we are but a part of battle plans to cover more ground and feel, see, hold, judge, admire, reflect, check, compare and examine more sheets, sweaters, socks, shirts, ties, toys, gimmicks, do-jiggers and gizmos than any other wife in an equal weight class and starting time. No handicaps allowed.

Old husbands, new husbands and inbetween husbands are well represented, herded well in tow, carrying their assorted burdens, as wives go forth in battle at the Christmas sale counter.

"Come on, Honey," whimpers one young husband, novice enough to think he can change the course of a charging wife.

"Shame on you," hisses somebody else's wife from back in the pack. "Stick it in your ear, Bud," challenges the sales lady. "Damn husbands are all alike," murmurs a chorus of feminine voices. "Don't you love me anymore," entreats the Honey, with the firmness of steel in her jaw and saved-for-emergency-only tears in her eyes.

Of course, he never had a chanee. Not in the Christmas shopping season. Women banded together in a common cause. It's an awesome sight.

We really never learned to resist. It's no contest. Always has been. We were sold down the river while we were children.

My 11-year old son told me he couldn't watch football on TV this weekend with me. "I'm going Christmas shopping with Mom," he said.

Wives or mothers, it makes no difference. They show no mercy. They prey on husbands, fathers and even the very young.

UNLV — 61 Home Games in a Row

Can Aztec Cagers Win in Las Vegas?

S.D. State's basketball team will try to beat the odds Friday when the Aztecs travel to Las Vegas to meet the Runnin' Rebels of UNLV at 8:15 p.m. in the Las Vegas Convention Center.

Las Vegas is one of the toughest places in the country to win games. The Rebels have won 61 games in a row in the Convention Center.

Jerry Tarkanian's UNLV club was 29-3 last season and is off to a fast 3-0 start this year. The Rebels have posted wins over Northwestern Louissiana State, Pepperdine and Bradley. UNLV played Pepperdine Monday night in Las Vegas their only game before meeting the Aztecs.

The Rebels figure to start Reggie Theus (6-7) and Jackie Robinson (6-6) at forwards, either Eddie McLeod (6-8) or Earl Evens (6-8) at center and Tony Smith and Willard Govain at guards.

Theus is the team's leading scorer with a 23.0 average. He scored 28 points against both Northwestern State and Bradley and also collected 13 rebounds and handed out eight assists against Bradley.

Robinson is averaging 15 points and 14 rebounds a game, Smith 15 points and Govain 11.7 points. Evans figured to be the starting center at the beginning of the year, but has been hampered by injuries. He joined the team after transferring from USC. McLeod is a transfer from Oxnard JC.

Aztec coach Tim Vezie appears to have settled on a starting lineup after three straight changes. The Axtecs will open with Kramer (6-7) and Gilbert (6-5) at forwards, Steve Malovic (6-11) at center and Dodd (615) and Dean Decker at guards (6-0).

"We would really like to bring Dodd off the bench," Vezie said, "but until we start getting the type of play from some of the other people that Mike is giving us, Mike will start. We just think that Mike picks up off the bench and we like his mental approach to coming into a game after it's started."

The Griffin players also tabbed sophomore linebacker Gene Daoust as the club's most inspirational player of the season. Daoust was also selected as the defensive players of the year, while sophomore guard Scot Buckles was voted as the offensive player of the year.

The awards were presented at the team banquet Saturday at the Hanalei Hotel in Mission Valley.

On hand for the event was former UC Berkeley football coach Mike White to present San Diego Mesa College quarterback Steve Fairchild with the first annual Joe Roth Memorial Award, which goes to the top JC football player in San Diego County.

Chargers Off to Denver With 3-in-a-row Record

The Chargers' Sunday's meeting will be a game of high pride.

It's high. The game will be with Denver in the Bronco's Mile-High Stadium.

And pride. That's the oil that smoothed the operation of the machinery that brought the Chargers to 7-5 after a dismal early-season.

After Denver, the Chargers close their season in the San Diego Stadium against the Pittsburgh Steelers. What a way to close a season.

If the Chargers beat the Broncs, and there are more who believe they will than there are Doubting Thomases, Steeler tickets will be hard to come by. But there are tickets available now at the Stadium. The Charger week-end begins at 10:50 Sunday with Pat Curran. Bobby Chandler and Bruce Walton provide Charger Talk at 11. The Tommy Prothro Show is at 12:35 and game preview with Jerry Gross, John DeMott and Scotty Gregory at 12:50. Channel 39 will televise the game starting at 1 p.m.

3 in a Row

After beating Cleveland for their third win in a row, Head coach Tommy Prothro said, "Ever since the (first) Denver game, our team has had a little different outlook. I think it has some confidence now. I think it believes something good is going to happen. I think, as a whole, Denver was the base game we've played this year. I still think we should have won the football game."

Looking Back

In Sunday's game. Quarterback Don Fouts completed 14 of 20 passes for 237 yards and 3 touchdowns. The Chargers scored the first 7 times they possessed the ball. 37 was the most points made by the Chargers since 43 against St. Louis in the 3rd game of the 1976 season. Final score—Chargers 37, Cleveland 14.

Punter Jeff West did not play against Cleveland. The Chargers did not have a punting situation all day.

Running back Hank Bauer scored his first touchdown as a pro when he weaved 15 yards with a shovel pass from Qb Fouts in the first quarter.

Placekicker Rolf Benirschke has made his last 8 field goal attempts. The Chargers record is 10 by Dennis Partee in 196'. The NFL record is 16 by Jan Stenerud (Kansas City) in 1969 and by Don Cockroft (Cleveland) in 1974-75.

Sunday's game with the Broncs will not be the push-over variety. Denver made the playoffs and any team good enough to do that is hard to beat. Playoff teams are seldom plagued with let-downs. The Chargers will be aware that they're in a game.

The Chargers lead Denver 19-15-1. Denver defeated San Diego 17-14 November 13 in San Diego Stadium in the teams' first 1977 meeting.

San Diego led 14-3 in the third quarter. Denver's Craig Morton threw touchdown passes of 33 and 8 yards to Haven Moses to bring the Broncos from behind to the victory. Moses's second touchdown came with 1:36 remaining in the game.

San Diego has not won in Denver since a 47-23 victory December 1, 1968. In that game, Chargers quarterback John Hadl threw for 325 yards and 5 touchdowns and wide receiver Lance Alworth caught 9 passes for 171 yards and 4 touchdowns.

The only holdover from the 1968 Chargers squad is tackle Russ Washington, who started that game at left defensive tackle. The Chargers' eight-game nonwinning streak in Denver includes a 17-17 tie in 1970.

Heavy Season Starts for USD

The USD basketball team (4-0) will host Cal State Stanislaus in the U.S.D. Sports Center Gymnasium Saturday at 8 p.m.

Prior to this game USD will have hosted Loyola-Marymount U on Tuesday.

USD basketball coach Jim Brovelli says the team is progressing well. However, starting with the Warriors USD plays seven of its next nine games against NCAA Division II competition. Those games loom very big if the Toreros are to have any hope for an invitation to the NCAA playoffs in March.

Included in these important clashes are games with two teams which participated in last year's regionals — Cal State Hayward and the U. of Puget Sound.

Agrees to Attend Camp

Mariners to Try to Sign Hebenton

Clay Hebenton, who starred last year with the WHA Phoenix Roadrunners, has accepted an invitation to the S.D. Mariners training camp.

Hebenton, 24, was the regular goaltender last year for the Roadrunners, posting a 4.22 goals allowed average in 56 games. Despite playing for the last place Roadrunners, Hebenton still rated among the top 10 WHA goalers with 17 of the Runners 28 wins.

"I think we have answered a lot of questions about the Mariners and the Pacific Hockey League," said Mariner general manager Bob Paine. "Hebenton played super hockey behind a lousy team last year. He's a first rate goaltender with a great attitude and I think that his addition will go a long way towards establishing the creditability of our team and league."

Hebenton, the son of former National Hockey League iron man Andy Hebenton, was the fourth busiest goaler in the WHA last year, with 56 game appearances. His average is 4.22 was almost a half-goal better han the Roadrunners team average of 4.70.

Before his outstanding rookie season with the Roadrunners last year, Hebenton also logged time with the National League Vancouver Canucks and the Central League Tuscon Mavericks.

The Mariners gained negotiating rights to Hebenton and 10 other free agent players this weekend, when the Pacific League held a second free agent draft.

Old man winter is right around the corner. He's bringing along shorter days and longer, chillier nights. That means we'll all be inside more. We'll be curling up on the couch to watch TV instead of going out for an after dinner walk. We'll be using more lights and more heat. We'll be stringing up decorative lighting. We'll be baking fruitcake and gingerbread. It all adds up to higher energy bills.

You can't help using more energy during the winter season. But you can keep your energy bills within reason. And we want you to know how. Check the calendar for some ideas to help in the four areas where you use the most energy: Heat, Hot Water, Lights and Meals. There's plenty of room for cutting out waste.

For even more helpful tips on how you can save energy during the winter months read the pamphlet in your next SDG&E bill. Or write or call SDG&E Energy Information.

Unequal Rights

Dear Editor:

I feel it is time for someone to enlighten today's women as to the dangers that lie beneath the Equal Rights Amendment, specifically the "draft."

How many women have considered the possibility of leaving an absorbing career to answer the draft? Do young mothers want to leave their husbands and home to serve their country?

Working mothers can still give their children the security they need. But what happens when there is no mother in the home for four years? The husband becomes lonely and dissatisfied, perhaps resentful. Can our divorce rate afford to go any higher? Do women really want to control military weapons to annihilate dozens of human beings in seconds?

Women are basically more emotionally sensitive and compassionate than men. After their enlistment, will they be the same confident, gentle and loving wives and mothers? Will there be a home waiting for them on their return, or will there be a "Dear John" letter?

Let's not overlook the importance of the possibility of the capture of a female military. She may become the vessel through which they satisfy their sadistic instincts. Consider the millions of dollars in taxpayers money necessary to furnish separate facilities at military installations.

Women of today are respected and admired not only for their intelligence and capabilities but also for their charm and femininity. Will men feel the same if their women are sporting fatigues and an M-16 Rifle? Male society aspires to protect their women. I don't want my three young sisters to be shipped out into the rugged and dangerous world of the military unless they so choose that life for themselves.

Do women have to lose by supporting the Equal Rights Amendment? If women are drafted our society, based on family life, will be destroyed. Take a stand now against the ERA Amendment, write to your State Congressmen in Sacramento soon; before it's too late!

Ask Your C.H.P.

CHP Capt. C.M. Douglas

Last week, Captain Douglas discussed sun screens on car windows.

If you have a question, no matter how insignificant it may appear to you, ask it.

It could save you a citation — or even your life.

Address your questions in care of this newspaper and please allow at least three weeks for your answer to appear.

This Week's Question:

I own a 1971 model car and wish to change the exhaust system. How do I know which systems are legal?

This Week's Answer:

All legal systems have to be certified for 1970 and later model vehicles by the manufacturer.

The manufacturer's catalog (which the muffler dealer should have) contains a statement of certification which tells which parts have been certified.

Parts certified after catalogs have been printed must display the certification statement on the part, or its container.

Stress Booklet from Info Center Discusses Causes and Cures

Part of our everyday existence, something we can't get rid of but we can learn to cope with is stress.

Ways of coping are discussed in a new factsheet from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

A free copy of "Stress", is available with a postcard to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 581F, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

There are basically two kinds of stress, one from physical activity and one from mental or emotional activity.

Stress from emotional frustration is more likely to produce disease, such as ulcers.

Physical exercise, it is believed, can relax you and help you deal with mental stress.

Here are some tips to help you get a handle on stress:

—Work it off — If you're angry or upset, try to blow off steam physically by running, playing tennis, or gardening. Even taking a walk can help. Physical activity allows you a "fight" outlet for mental stress.

—Talk out your worries — It helps to share worries with someone you trust and respect. If you find yourself becoming preoccupied with emotional problems, it might be wise to seek a professional guidance counselor or psychologist.

This is not admitting defeat. It's acknowledging you are an intelligent human being who knows when to ask for help.

—Learn to accept what you cannot change.

—Avoid self medication — Many chemicals can mask stress symptoms but they don't help you adjust to the stress itself. Remember, the ability to handle stress comes from within you, not from the outside.

—Get enough sleep and rest — Lack of sleep can lessen your ability to deal with stress by making you more irritable. If stress repeatedly keeps you from sleeping, tell your doctor.

—Balance work and recreation — "All work and no play can make anyone a nervous wreck"

—Do something for others — Sometimes when you are distressed, you concentrate too much on yourself and your situation.

When this happens it helps to do something for someone else — it gets your mind off yourself and contains an extra bonus — it helps make friends.

—Take one thing at a time — It's defeating to tackle all your tasks at once.

California's State Employment offices in San Diego County made a total of 3,337 job placements in October.

This was a slight decrease from the September placement total of 3,747.

The EDD said the figure was almost 23 percent higher than the number placed in October 1976, when the EDD placed 2,718 job seekers.

To date the EDD has made 36,695 job placements, compared with 28,638 in the same period in 1976.

Air Fares Going Up For Cal's Airlines

Pacific Southwest Airlines (PSA) has been granted authority by the California Public Utilities Commission to increase its passenger air fares by 8.37 percent. The annual revenue increase for PSA will be about $13,847,000.

The PUC also authorized United Air Lines, Trans World Airlines and Western Airlines to increase their intrastate fares to the level authorized to PSA.

The new fares, effective January 1, will increase fares between the Los Angeles and the Bay Areas from $25.95 to $28.10.

San Diego to Los Angeles fares will go from $12.45 to $13.30, and fares between San Diego and Sacramento will increase from $32.30 to $36.

TV Coverage of Congress Results from Van's Effort

Sometime next year, for the first time in history, the TV networks and other broadcasters will be able to routinely cover floor debates in the House of Representatives.

Broadcast coverage up to now has been permitted only for special events like the President's State-of-the-Union messages. Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, a former radio and television newsman, has long urged that the House open itself to unrestricted coverage by all of the news media.

As the result of a resolution adopted last month, the House is preparting to permit closed-circuit telecasts of its regular proceedings.

Van Deerlin, in a letter to the Subcommittee on House Rules and Regulations, praised the willingness of House leaders to invite in cameras but said the equipment should be operated by the news media, not the House itself.

A House committee has recommended that the House take charge of the television operation in order to assure that the filmed record of the House sessions be as complete and accurate as possible.

Van Deerlin called on House leaders to "abandon even the last vestiges" of control over what broadcasters report about the House, by turning over full responsibility for the camera work to professional broadcasters.

He said that nevertheless he is cheered that "we are moving one step nearer to full first amendment rights of all news media, both print and electronic."

The Rules subcommittee contacted by Van Deerlin is studying methods of providing the coverage. The House has already agreed broadcasters will have full access to both live and delayed reports, however they are provided.

Travel Shots Up $2

The County Department of Public Health will charge $2 for each dose of vaccine administered to anyone requiring vaccinations for foreign travel.

This $2 fee is in addition to the $3 fee presently charged for the validation of each immunization administered by the County and recorded on the International Certificate of Validation. The additional $2 fee for each dose of vaccine will pay for the County's cost of providing and administering the vaccines.

The fee ordinance was adopted unanimously by the San Diego County Board of Supervisors and is in effect now.

Ham Hocks & Beans Is VFW Sun. Dinner

Mission Valley Veterans of Foreign Wars Post and Auxiliary No. 3787, 4370 Twain ave., will have a "Get-Together" Sunday afternoon, at the Post Home.

A ham hocks and beans dinner with corn bread will be served at 2 p.m.

Chaplains of Mission Valley Post and Auxiliary, Tom Sharp and Mrs. Jean Rinner, will prepare and deliver Christmas Baskets to the needy this coming week.

Bank Hikes Dividends

The California First Bank has increased the bank's regular quarterly dividend from 19 cents per share to 20 cents for the final quarter of 1977.

The cash payment will be made on or about January 16, to shareholders of record as of December 16.

The increase will bring payouts for the year 1977 to a total of 75 cents per share, up from 65 cents per share paid for 1976.

Bus Lines Increase Fares

Continental Trailways, Inc. and American Buslines, Inc. have been granted authority by the California Public Utilities Commission to increase their passenger and express rates by 5.2 percent to bring them comparable to rates presently charged by Greyhound Lines, Inc.

The increase will result in additional annual revenue of $107,758.

The rates may become effective immediately.

The rates for one-way passenger service will begin with a minimum fare of 60 cents. The fare for a ten-mile trip will come to 74 cents; for 25 miles, $1.85; and for 50 miles, $3.46.

For a 100-mile trip, the fare will be $6.54.

Round trip fares will be 190 percent of one-way fares.

State Information Number Listed

Californians interested to learn what information the state government has on them can now dial a toll-free number 1-800-952-5562.

They will be connected with the state's new Office of Information Practices which answers questions, helps cut through red tape and insures that individuals can exercise their right to privacy.

The files of state government were opened last year by an executive order. In September, the governor signed into law the Information Practices Act of 1977, which will replace the executive order in July 1978 and extends the provisions of the order to all state agencies with the exception of the Legislature, the courts and the Compensation Insurance Fund.

Running and Exercise

Running can be more than a form of exercise. It can also be a potentially growthful and enlightening activity.

Psychotherapist Judith B. Elman, Ph.D. is teaching a new UC San Diego Extension course this winter titled "Long-Distance Running as Therapy."

Scheduled for 6-8 p.m. Thursdays, Jan. 12-Feb. 23 in Room 110, Third Lecture Hall, Third College Campus, UCSD, the course costs $45 and offers two units of UCSD Extension credit.

Theatre Production

Regular admission for evening concert is $2 a ticket for adults, $1.75 for senior citizens, $1 for children under twelve; a special discount rate of $6 for those attending both afternoon workshop and evening concert.

A special group rate of $1.50 per person for fifteen or more. For ticket reservations call: 234-7938.

Farmers Fear Higher Costs With Loss of Panama Canal

The Agricultural Council of California has expressed its concern over the potential loss of the Panama Canal and its economic impact on California farmers.

According to the council costs for the transportation of rice grains, soybeans and cotton to Europe and Puerto Rico would increase sharply.

BofA Study Shows Economy Views

Californians are getting increasingly pessimistic about the future of the economy.

According to surveys conducted in September by Bank of America Corp., 54 percent of those polled believed the economic conditions were either remaining the same or worsening.

Another 43 percent believed the economy was getting better while the rest had no opinion.

Those believing the economy was getting better dipped three percentage points from surveys done in July of this year.

Also included in the poll was how people believed 1978 would be.

Some 51 percent saw no change or worsening conditions while 42 percent believed the economy would get better.

Also, 63 percent said they were not very confident inflation would be controlled while a mere four percent said they were "very confident".

Info Center Has Toy Safety Facts

Although you may not be thinking much about Christmas yet, chances are your kids are starting their wish lists. Toy stores are getting set for big business already.

This year, your kids will have more than 150,000 types of toys to ask for. But you can't assume that all toys they want are safe.

A free factsheet from the Consumer Product Safety Commission gives suggestions on what to look for when shopping for toys.

For your copy of "Safe Toy Tips," send a postcard to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 641F, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

Shop carefully to prevent these toy-related injuries from happening to your kids.

Cuts and puncture wounds —Check toys for sharp points and edges and rigid wires or small parts that a child is able to remove.

Choking-Suffocation — For young children, avoid toys with removable small parts the child might swallow or even inhale.

Burns — Check and abide by age recommendations on electrically operated toys.

Hearing Damage — For the sake of your child's ears, avoid extremely loud toys.

And, be sure to keep the child's skills and abilities in mind when selecting toys. A toy that is safe in the hands of the eight year old can be a serious hazard when a toddler plays with it in his or her way.

Although these reminders may seem just plain common sense, each holiday season thousands of children are seriously injured playing with their new toys. Don't let your child's Christmas end this way.

Computers Link Sears Shoppers

All eleven Sears Stores in the San Diego area have implemented a new catalog ordering system which uses cathode ray tubes and computers.

Shoppers may check the "tube" for the available merchandise through the company's Chicago based mail order outlets.

CRT's or cathode ray tubes, are basically television sets linked with computers. Shoppers may punch into the system via a typewriter-like keyboard, asking the computer for information on merchandise.

The computer then will in a matter of seconds return with a listing of the current styles, colors, sizes, and other pertinent data concerning merchandise ready to ship.

The advantage of the system is that the customer may make an instant decision based on the complete information as to the specific items or they may know immediately what alternatives are available.

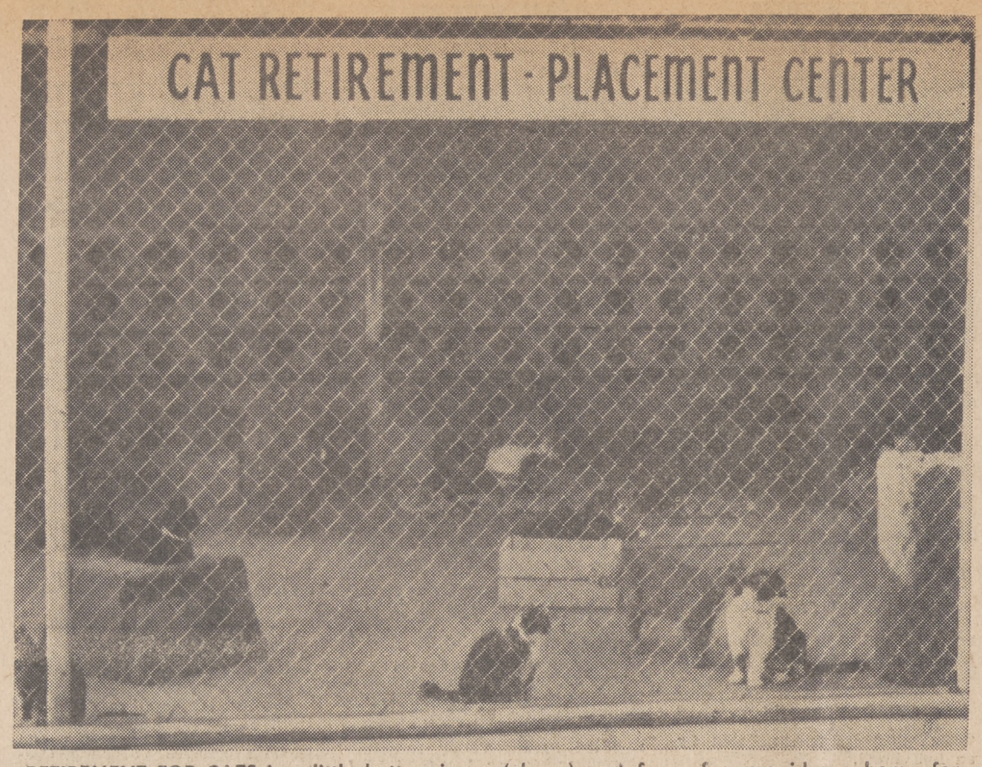
Regina, Saskatchewan, in the early pioneer days was known as Pile O' Bones.



RETIREMENT FOR CATS is a little better since a group of cat lovers in Spring Valley started the Cat Retirement-Placement Center at 9031 Birch street nearly two years ago. The group, The National Cat Protection Society, takes healthy cats into their facilities (above) and for a fee provides a home for them. Cats range in age from three to 13 and must have all shots and be in good general health before the Center will admit them into their facilities.

Even with the good food and the lazy life style, the Center's Director, Mrs. Grace Papa said a few cats just don't adjust. "The stress factor is higher in some cats than in others," Papa explained, "Some won't eat and lose weight." But for most, life in the center is "just purrfect" (below).

SDG&E Appliance Census Begins

More than 32,000 San Diego Gas & Electric customers will participate in the company's biennial census of appliance usage.

Taken every two years, the census is conducted at the request of the California Public Utilities Commission and the State Energy Commission in an attempt to improve energy demand forecasts.

Each California utility must conduct the survey.

"Participants are randomly selected from our residential customers," said Terance Dougherty, manager of SDG&E's marketing research department. "We are trying to be accurate in our assessment of future energy demand so we can predict how much new power generation equipment will be needed."

This is the fourth time SDG&E has conducted the survey. The other three were done in 1971, 1973 and 1975. Response to the questionnaire will provide base line measurements for use in the company's expanding conservation program.

Dougherty said participating customers are being asked a series of questions relating to home appliances, heating and cooling systems, type of home and household conditions. Televisions, stoves, refrigerators, gas fire places, swimming pools and other energy using appliances are checked.

State Attorney Gen. Offers Tips For Holidays

State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger has made some suggestions for those struggling through the danger days — the period between Thanksgiving and New Year's Day.

The period is frequently marred by increases in crime and traffic accidents. To avoid these pitfalls, the Attorney General suggests the following advice.

Holiday Motoring

To keep holiday accidents to a minimum Younger suggests you:

— Make plans to have someone drive you home if you plan to attend holiday parties and if you plan to drink at these parties.

—Make sure your car is mechanically sound, the windows are clean and clear of obstruction.

—Be patient in heavy traffic and leave for your destination early enough to allow for delays.

—Not follow the car ahead of you too closely.

—Avoid changing lanes except when necessary.

—Watch the cars ahead of you and behind you.

—Always be on the alert for pedestrians and cars entering the roadway from side streets and parking areas.

The Attorney General pointed out drunk driving arrests traditionally soar between Thanksgiving and New Year's Day. He added these arrests also carry other penalties such as $500 fines and up to six months in jail.

He also warned the police will be on alert for any driver who appears to be driving under the influence of an intoxicant.

Burglaries and Street Crime

Younger said his experience and the statistics show home burglaries soar during the danger days.

To avoid your home from being burglarized, he suggests you:

—Keep a light on to make visible any burglary attempt.

—Prune shrubbery around doors and windows.

—Install effective locks and stops on doors and windows.

—And while attending parties, never leave coats, purses or parcels in an unoccupied bedroom with window access to the street.

Other tips the Attorney General offered to thwart holiday rip-offs were:

—Shoppers should always place purchases in automobile trunks, lock the car and close the windows. They should hold purchases tightly to prevent their being taken, hold on to purses, and to make sure credit cards are returned by sales clerks.

Merchants should be on the lookout for bad check artists and follow these guidelines:

—Require more than one means of identification before cashing checks from an unknown shopper.

—Do not accept a temporary drivers license as proper identification since bad check artists frequently apply for a driver's license under a fictitious name to secure a temporary license.

—Ask anyone wishing to cash a check to endorse it in your presence and check the endorsement carefully.

—Be wary of business and payroll checks since many forgers will burglarize a company on Friday night and pass stolen checks before the theft is discovered on Monday.

Younger suggests pedestrians:

—Cross only at corners and keep to the right in the crosswalks.

—Cross only on proper signals.

—Look both ways before crossing and be sure the way is clear.

—Watch for turning cars from both the left and the right.

—Never enter a street or roadway from between parked cars.

—And walk on the left side facing the traffic if there are no sidewalks and you have to walk on the roadway.

Hitchhiking

Finally, Younger said hitchhiking is exceptionally dangerous during the holiday season. He noted it is illegal to stand in a roadway for the purpose of soliciting a ride.

The safest way to travel, according to the State Attorney General, is with someone you know and never with a stranger.

Card Store to Open

A new Hallmark Cards store will be opened in College Grove Center by Irving and Gloria Adler who recently signed a 10-year, $195,000 lease for 3,077 square feet of space in the center's mall area.

Theatre To Present 2 Nights of Mime

California-Pacific Theatre will present two evening of mime and music, on December 16 and 17.

The Z Mime Company will headline the December 16 concert and present other top local mime artists.

Antonin Hodek, internationally famous Czechoslavakian mime, will present his concert, "The Price of Folly" on December 17.

Also Hodek will offer a Lecture/Demonstration workshop December 17 from 1 to 4 p.m.

Both concerts and workshop held at the Balboa Park Puppet Theatre, Park Boulevard to President's Way.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. with admission set at $2. Group rates are available by calling 234-7938.

Ballot Mailing Plan Saves $21,000 Postage

Two or more registered voters with the same surname and address in the County of San Diego will receive only one State ballot pamphlet in future elections.

As required by a State Senate bill, the San Diego County Board of Supervisors voted 4-0 in approval of this process and directed the Registrar of Voters to take appropriate action.

The Department of Electronic Data Processing reported that a savings of about $21,000 in postage will be achieved as a result.
